Royal Report: Learning is a process and a journey!

Not a whole lot to say about last night's game. Shall we call it the Royal Rumble? Maybe, but on a high note, the cheering section was great to see. Once again we had spirit and fire to urge the team on. The enthusiasm of the boys basketball team was the kind that hadn't been seen in a few years. Gentlemen you made me proud. Now, if we could only get the Royal Wave rollin again. We will work on it. Ladies I sure hope you enjoyed their support. You fought long, very long, and hard but the night was not to belong to us. We will get them next time. On a more serious note, I want to say this, sometimes adults behave like children, and we saw some of that last night at the game. It was ugly! I want to compliment all of our students that were present at the game, on your wonderful sportsmanship. I just want to remind you that our school is known for great sportsmanship and you once again did us proud. Thank you for the great but long evening of basketball. Mrs. Horrell
